If you are a new student, I am delighted to welcome you to South Eastern Regional College (SERC). If you are returning, I am equally delighted to welcome you back. Along with all my colleagues on the staff of the College, I would like to wish you an enjoyable and successful year.

This Handbook is designed to provide you with key information on the College. It also answers some of the questions that you may have about services and support available to you and how to make the most of your time with us. Please do not hesitate to ask a member of staff if you have any other questions about SERC.

As you enrol on your college course, you are taking on an exciting and rewarding challenge. Our aim is to help you to settle in quickly to college life.

I wish you every success.

Tommy Martin (Interim) Principal and Chief Executive

Vision & Mission

Vision

We will be an innovative and entrepreneurial world-class education and skills provider.

Mission

Our mission is to shape and influence our community, by promoting and innovative and entrepreneurial society through shaping and influencing education and skills, maintaining an inclusive learning environment, which will empower and enable individuals and businesses to fulfil their ambitions. In doing so we will contribute to the Programme for Government and associated strategies which are aimed at promoting social and economic wellbeing and the future prosperity of Northern Ireland.

Introduction

This online handbook is intended to be a reference point for all HE students. It is an overall summary of HE structure, regulations and support services at SERC. You will also receive detailed information directly related to your programme in your Programme Study Handbook. Used together they will provide the information needed through your Programme of Study (POS).

Throughout the handbook there are links to the standard operating procedures (SOPs) and policies used to manage the Student Experience. As well as using the links directly, these can be found in the Policies and Procedures section on the SERC Website.

“What our students say...”

“I would absolutely recommend SERC, no matter where you are in the education process. The course has increased my prospects of getting on to my desired degree course and puts me one step closer to my dream job. The qualifications and skills you walk away with will be with you for life. My experience has been invaluable.”

Pearson BTEC HNC in Social and Community Work (Social and Community Work Practice)

“Coming from a school environment into SERC is the best adjustment you can make. It feels like a healthier environment for study due to the relationship between the lecturers and the students. The lecturers treat you like a person rather than just a student. Thanks so much to my lecturers – every one of them have been so accommodating of students needs and questions. They are all very good.”

BSc (Hons) in Cyber Security and Digital Forensics (Validated by The Open University)

“School wasn’t for me, I didn’t like the rigid structure of the classes and teaching, whereas at SERC everyone is studying in their own style and it’s a lot better for learning. SERC is accommodating to everybody, and the tutors are also very good in the way that they teach the course information.”

Terms and Conditions

The Terms and Conditions given to you when you applied and confirmed by your acceptance and enrolment on this course are available on the SERC Website and can be accessed by this link Terms and Conditions.

Health and Safety

No Smoking Policy and Substance Abuse

The College has a No Smoking Policy which includes e-cigarettes. Smoking is not permitted on any part of SERC campuses except in designated external smoking areas. You will be advised of these designated areas during the induction period of your programme. E-cigarettes may not be used within any of the SERC campuses. The College has a no tolerance policy for substance abuse and will act in accordance with the Substance Misuse SOP.

Fire/Emergency Evacuation Procedure

South Eastern Regional College has a Fire/Emergency Evacuation procedure for each campus. This will be fully explained at Induction and is accessible on the SERC Website under Public Information Policies and Procedures section within the General Health & Safety SOP. You must comply fully with this policy as failure to do so may potentially endanger life. Failure to comply with such procedures will be dealt with through the Student / Trainee Performance, Behaviour and Disciplinary Procedures.

Personal Emergency Evacuation Plans (PEEPs)

Any student who has a disability that may affect how they can be evacuated from the College buildings must have a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP) completed. This plan will detail how such a student can be evacuated quickly and safely from the building should an emergency arise. A PEEP or Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan is the responsibility of the learner, and this will be created alongside their course Tutor and with support (if required) from Learning Support and the Lead Designated Safeguarding Officer. Any learner who requires a PEEP must follow it in the event of a fire or other emergency evacuation.

Individual Risk Assessments

Should a student experience a health-related condition that brings particular risks to themselves or other students or staff then they should disclose details of this to a member of the Learning Support Staff, or to their lecturer, ideally at the time of application. In such circumstances a Risk Assessment will be completed, and a Management Plan prepared to address these risks. In every case the College will take all reasonable steps to ensure the safety of the student, their classmates and SERC staff.

Health and Safety Regulations

You are required to abide by the College's Health and Safety Regulations at all times. The regulations which govern you state that: 'All students shall be advised that they:

- Have a duty for the safety of themselves, their fellow students and others in relation to their actions;
- Are required, when safety is involved, to wear appropriate clothing, PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) when required, and observe proper standards of behaviour;
- Are required to observe safety rules and procedures;
- Must not interfere with or misuse anything provided within the College for health and safety; and
- Are expected to report to staff any instruments, machinery or other college equipment or facilities which constitute a hazard.'

Further details regarding the specific Health and Safety requirements as they relate to your programme of study will be provided by your lecturers during the induction period of your programme. A complete copy of the SERC Health and Safety Policy and Procedures can be found on the SERC Website under Public Information Policies and Procedures section.

ENROLMENT

Enrolment

Enrolment Information and Support

When you enrol as a student at SERC you are agreeing to the rules and regulations as set out in the College's Terms and Conditions.

Tuition fees are payable for all HE courses and the price may vary depending on your course of study. Full details on the financial assistance available are detailed on the SERC Website www.serc.ac.uk/fees-and-finance. *International students contact international@serc.ac.uk for fee information.

Full-time Students

All full-time Higher Education students are required to submit evidence of how they intend to fund their course fees during the enrolment process. Your place on the course will not be secure until this evidence is submitted. If you are unsure if you are eligible for the Home Student fee rate, please contact Customer Services.

There are a number of options for paying your fees:

1. Student Finance NI funding of fees

You must upload your award letter to your student account confirming funding of your fees by Student Finance NI. If you have not yet applied, you can do so via www.studentfinanceni.co.uk. If you have not been approved for funding at the point of enrolment you will need to complete a Direct Debit Mandate to secure your place on the course.

If the award letter is not received 1 week prior to the direct debit instalment date the College will proceed with the direct debit instalment payment. If the application for funding is unsuccessful or does not meet the full course fee the student is liable for the outstanding fees. In all instances, the College will refund to the student any overpayments that have been made to their account.

Tuition fee loan payments are issued to the College following an attendance confirmation at the start of each term. If your full tuition fee is not released to the College or your tuition fee loan does not cover the full cost of your tuition fees, the College will invoice you for the remaining fee amount.

2. Payment by Instalments

You can pay your fees by six equal instalments. These instalments are as follows:

- 1 November 2024
- 1 December 2024
- 3 February 2025
- 3 March 2025
- 1 April 2025
- 1 May 2025

To avail of this option, you must complete a Direct Debit Mandate download here and upload the completed mandate to your Student Account or submit to Customer Services at enrolment.

3. Payment in Full

You can avail of a 5% discount (of tuition fee element only) if paying your fees in full at the point of enrolment. Payment can be accepted by cash, cheque or card via Customer Services.

4. Employer / Sponsoring Organisation

If your employer or sponsoring organisation is paying the fees on your behalf, they will need to complete a Sponsor Liability Form. The form can be downloaded here. Once completed, you should upload the form to your Student Account or submit directly to Customer Services on campus.

Part-time Students

Fee payment is required for part-time higher education courses and fees are payable at the point of enrolment. Course fee amounts will be displayed on the course descriptor on the College website.

There are a number of options for paying your fees:

1. Payment by Instalment

When the total fee payable, after any concessionary fee has been deducted, is over £300 it is possible to pay by instalments. The instalment plan is made via direct debit. The direct debit arrangement is only available for enrolments on or before the second week of the class by completing a direct debit mandate.

The deposit payable at the time of enrolment is 25% of the total course fee. For September enrolments, six instalment payments will then be collected, by direct debit, as follows:

- 1 November 2024
- 1 December 2024
- 3 February 2025
- 3 March 2025
- 1 April 2025
- 1 May 2025

Concessionary fees are only applicable to the tuition fee element of the course fee. Concessionary fees do not apply to all courses. For details on eligibility for concessionary fees please view the Concessionary Fees section on the website.

2. Student Finance NI

After enrolment part-time students can apply for assistance from Student Finance NI in the form of a means tested tuition fee grant and or tuition fee loan and a means tested course grant, dependent upon household income and course intensity. Tuition fee grants and tuition fee loans are paid directly to the College.

The Student Finance award letter must be uploaded to the student's account as soon as it is received by the student. If the award letter is not received 1 week prior to the direct debit instalment date the College will proceed with the direct debit instalment payment. If the application for funding is unsuccessful or does not meet the full course fee the student is liable for the outstanding fees. In all instances, the College will refund to the student any overpayments that have been made to their account.

Tuition fee loan payments are issued to the College following an attendance confirmation at the start of each term. If your full tuition fee is not released to the College or your tuition fee loan does not cover the full cost of your tuition fees, the College will invoice you for the remaining fee amount.

3. Payment in Full

You can avail of a 5% discount (of tuition fee element only) if paying your fees in full at the point of enrolment. Payment can be accepted by cash, cheque or card via Customer Services.

4. Employer / Sponsoring Organisation

If your employer or sponsoring organisation is paying the fees on your behalf, they will need to complete a Sponsor Liability Form. The form can be downloaded here. Once completed, you should upload the form to your Student Account or submit directly to Customer Services on campus.

Full & Part-Time HE Withdrawal or Leave of Absence

Higher Education Students who withdraw from or go on a leave of absence will be charged a tuition fee as detailed below:

| Withdrawal Dates | Fee Liability |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| From first day of term until 6 January 2025 | 25% of the full annual tuition fee |
| From 6 January 2025 until 11 April 2025 | 50% of the full annual tuition fee |
| From 11 April 2025 | 100% of the full annual tuition fee |

Non-Payment of Fees

Fee payment is required for each year of your course. If paying by direct debit mandate or Student Finance award letter you will need to submit a new document for each year of your course. If you do not pay your tuition fees, or default on payment, the College will impose a number of sanctions, including immediate loss of access to the College ICT systems. You also will not be allowed to graduate until your fees are paid in full. Default in any payment will result in a £10 administration fee. Any student with outstanding student fees will be referred to a Debt Recovery Agency.

For more detail on payment of tuition fees please access the SERC Website FAQs section which includes details on fees.

Your information is protected and treated in confidence within the provisions of the Data Protection Act (2018) and the UK GDPR. For further detail on how we process your data please visit our website

<https://privacy.serc.ac.uk/privacynotice>

Student Records

Student records are held in the College's central database. It is important that you tell Customer Services of any changes to your personal details in order that these can be kept up to date.

Privacy Notice

SERC looks after your private data carefully and in line with all data protection legislation. The Privacy notice below explains this in more detail.

<https://privacy.serc.ac.uk/privacynotice>

Criminal Convictions

SERC is committed to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of all students, trainees and staff as they attend the College, while at the same time ensuring that there is an equality of opportunity for all, including those with criminal convictions.

The College requests all applicants who hold, or have held any convictions at the time of their application to declare these in line with the Criminal Conviction Disclosure Procedure (which is included within the Safeguarding, Care and Welfare SOP) so that, if necessary, an appropriate risk assessment and management plan can be prepared.

If a student receives a conviction whilst at SERC, they must disclose it through the Criminal Conviction Disclosure Procedure so that, if necessary, an appropriate risk assessment and management plan can be prepared. Any disclosure will be seen in the context of the occupational area you follow, the nature of the offence and the responsibility the College has to care for all students, staff and others who attend the College. However, should we become aware of an offence that has not been disclosed, the College will review the risk and decide if the student must withdraw from the course until the Criminal Conviction Disclosure Procedure can be applied.

Course duration

The College has a duty of care to ensure that students can complete the second or third year of their programmes if they have completed the first year successfully. Students will be guaranteed delivery of their Programme of Study (POS) duration as published on the College website or prospectus at the time they enrolled on the programme. The Higher Education Course Closure SOP provides further information.

Progression within the College

The College will encourage you to progress through the various levels in line with your skills and abilities. Progression from one Programme of Study to another is not guaranteed and is subject to gaining the necessary entry qualifications, course viability and the funding constraints that the College must operate within as outlined previously. You will be given the opportunity to develop skills, qualities and competencies which will aid you in your personal and professional development to achieve and contribute positively to the economy. We will encourage you to complete your full Programme of Study (which may include Essential Skills), which will equip you for progression to the next level or employment. Remember that some universities will require you to have GCSE Maths and/or English to progress to a new qualification with them. You should check this requirement early with the university and if necessary enrol yourself in the appropriate class in college to achieve GCSE Maths and/or English if required. You can ask your tutor and the careers staff for advice. You will be responsible for the course fees for your GCSEs.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF ME?

What is Expected of Me?

Student Code of Conduct

This Code sets out the standard of conduct that SERC expects of all students so that everyone enjoys a safe, healthy and inclusive learning environment. Good conduct means acting with honesty, being considerate and showing respect for yourself and others. It means treating everyone you meet with courtesy, and avoiding any actions which may cause offence or harm to others.

Good conduct In Class means...

- Attending every class, being punctual, and notifying staff of any absence
- Submitting coursework on time and making sure the work is all your own - do not copy from others, text books or the internet
- Complying with Awarding Body and Examination regulations relating to submitting coursework, plagiarism and exam arrangements.
- Behaving appropriately in the classroom
- Adhering to guidance from tutors on mobile phones/devices, breaks and consumption of food/drink in the classroom
- Showing respect for other students e.g. allowing others to speak, not causing disruption and not swearing
- Complying with guidance on appropriate use of the College IT systems

Good conduct In and Around SERC means...

- Showing respect for property and facilities by disposing of litter properly and not damaging any tools, equipment or other resources
- Driving and parking appropriately on campus grounds and with consideration for others
- Not behaving in a way that damages the reputation of the College
- Not bringing offensive weapons or items which could harm others into the College
- Adhering to the College's No Smoking Policy which includes e-cigarettes
- Conforming with all Health and Safety rules and instructions such as fire evacuation, safe use of machinery and the wearing of Personal Protective Equipment or the correct uniform
- Not consuming, possessing or distributing alcohol or drugs while engaged in SERC related activity.

Good conduct Towards Others means...

- Recognising the diversity of the College community by treating everyone with respect and not discriminating against anyone who is different from you.
- Respecting the rights and freedoms of other students, staff, college contractors, local residents and business owners
- Actively discouraging bullying and harassment and reporting any incidents that you see. Speak out against racism, sexism, homophobia and other forms of prejudice
- Not making inappropriate comments about the College, its staff or other students on social media, and not displaying clothing or tattoos with emblems that would cause offence to others.

During the induction phase of your course, you will be provided with further specific conduct requirements that relate to your particular programme of study. Breaches of the Code of Conduct will be addressed using the SERC Student/Trainee Performance, Behaviour and Disciplinary Management Procedures.

Taken together, compliance with these requirements will enable all of our students to learn in an environment which maximises effective learning while at the same time minimises stress on both students and staff.

Programme Regulations

The regulations for your programme can be found on your programme Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) and Student Intranet. Below are some issues which cover all higher education programmes.

Attendance requirements

Regular attendance is expected at all lectures, seminars and other activities. An e-register will be taken by your tutor at every class. It is essential that you attend activities such as tutorials and seminars at which you are being assessed.

The minimum expected requirement for attendance is 80% for all learning activities in each module of your course for part-time and full-time students. Failure to do so may mean that you will be asked to leave the course on the grounds of Academic Standing (see below). The College is keen to support you through your studies and if you face issues which may affect this it is important that you keep your tutors informed. Communication is important so do use your email account or Microsoft Teams to let your Programme Coordinator/Course Director or Pastoral tutor know of the issues you are facing or ask for a meeting or phone call to discuss further.

Unexpected Absence

If you are absent from your course or unable to study for more than two days you must advise the Programme Coordinator/Course Director and complete an Absence Form at Appendix 2. The College recognises that it may be difficult to obtain medical evidence for medical reasons of less than 5 days. In this case an explanation can be given on the Absence Form.

If you are unable to hand in an assessment or attend for examinations or practical assessments, you should, in addition, complete an extenuating circumstances form (EC1) in order that you may be considered for an extension. The EC1 form can be found on the SERC HE web page under the Assessment Regulations and Key Forms section or in Appendix 3 of this Handbook. As part of this process, you must provide your Programme Coordinator/Course Director with a medical certificate or evidence of your extenuating circumstances on your return. The additional evidence is stated on both the Absence and Extenuating Circumstances forms and your Programme Coordinator/Course Director will advise you of any additional documentation to be supplied. The forms should be submitted by email to the Programme Coordinator/Course Director.

Authorised Absence

If you expect to be absent this may be authorised in specific circumstances where it is supported by sufficient evidence. You should inform the Programme Co-ordinator/Course Director a minimum of one week (where possible) in advance of the event. Attendance will be reviewed periodically as per the College's Authorisation of Absences for Full-Time Students SOP. Disciplinary action may be taken where poor attendance is identified. Please refer to the SOP for details. The type of issues which may be approved as authorised absence include:

- Weather related factors that affect a large area of Northern Ireland
- Transport disruption caused by strikes; civil unrest, public events, service provider

- If the student is a main carer and care arrangements for a close family member have fallen through. However, this should not be a regular occurrence that would lead to attendance dropping below 80% attendance;
- Driving & Theory tests (but not lessons unless part of a college course);
- Attendance at a funeral, wedding or civil ceremony of close family members;
- Visit to university open days or career related interview;
- Extra-curricular activities such as sports participation at national or county level or voluntary work. The activity must represent a significant personal achievement/involvement. Representing SERC at a sports or skills competitions should be regarded as authorised absence;
- Work-placement which is an integral part of the course;
- Attendance at probation meeting and court cases;
- Family breakdown or other family related matters that cause the student to be living in temporary accommodation;
- Illness (see below);
- Attendance at interviews for employment;
- Attendance at interviews with the Department for the Economy/Social Security Agency/Jobs and Benefits Office/Careers Office;
- To take written examinations or external competitive assessments related to the professional and technical qualifications being pursued;
- Attendance arising from a Community Service Order as directed by a Court of Law;
- For domestic emergencies including immediate family bereavements;
- Attendance at annual training courses or camps. A participant who is a member of the Auxiliary or Reserve Forces and who is required to attend annual training courses or camps may be granted special leave for a maximum of 2 weeks per academic year;
- Attendance at hospital/doctor/dentist appointments; only in emergencies or where these cannot be arranged outside the hours of course participation;
- Attendance at regular hospital visits or health checks for participants with disabilities;
- Attendance at SERC Youth Health Clinic; and
- Attendance at events directly associated with the College, including Skills Competitions.

Your Programme Co-ordinator/Course Director will aim to return to you with a response within three working days. It is therefore important that you give as much notice as possible, but it is understood that in some cases this may not be possible, and each case will be considered in context.

Prolonged absence from your course, without good reason, is viewed as a serious breach of regulations.

Extenuating Circumstances

Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which either prevented you from attending an examination or submitting part or all of your coursework by the due deadline. It could also be the case that you attended an examination, or submitted coursework, but your performance was adversely affected by extenuating circumstances. As a result, you may be entitled to an adjustment in assessment submission dates or retakes of assessment elements.

A list of potential events which may be considered as extenuating can be found in the Authorised Absence section. These can often be medical in nature, however, anything which is unforeseeable or unpreventable may be considered an extenuating circumstance (for example, a family bereavement). As part of this process, you will be required to provide appropriate evidence to support your EC request.

For further details and to apply for extenuating circumstances please see the Assessment Regulations and Key Forms section on the SERC Website.

Leave of Absence / Interruption of Studies

Students can apply for a Leave of Absence/ Interruption of Study if they need to defer their studies, until the following semester or following academic year, due to exceptional circumstances. A Leave of Absence/ Interruption of Study will normally be for the minimum period of at least one semester and the student will be guaranteed their place on the course if they return to their course on the agreed return date.

The Leave of Absence (LOA1) form, located in the Assessment Regulations and Key Forms section on the SERC website should be completed by the student and supporting evidence should be attached. Both the LOA1 and the evidence should be submitted to the Programme Coordinator.

Once the Programme Team has reviewed the request a decision will be made, and the Programme Coordinator will notify the student of the outcome within four weeks. The College may grant a fee suspension for students who have been approved a Leave of Absence by the Programme Team. This means that the student may not be charged fees during their Leave of Absence.

The student should state on their LOA1 that they are requesting a Fees Suspension. The Programme Coordinator will then forward a copy of the completed LOA1 form and evidence to the Finance Unit for consideration by the Head, or Deputy Head, of Finance. If receiving tuition fee support from Student Loan Company (SLC) the Finance department will notify SLC of the fee suspension and update the student's account on the College finance system.

Good Academic Standing

The College is required to advise grant-awarding bodies that an individual student is 'in good academic standing'. This statement will not be made in respect of any student whose attendance is unsatisfactory or whose behaviour on the course is otherwise unsatisfactory. Any student absent without agreed leave of absence for four weeks will be assumed to have withdrawn from their course and their sponsor body will be notified accordingly.

Leave of Absences are dealt with in the paragraph above.

Examination Regulations

Examination regulations (Appendix 4) cover all written Higher Education examinations conducted at SERC. Special regulations are in place for practical examinations and your Programme Coordinator will advise you of these.

Examinations are normally of two or three hours' duration. Examination scripts are not returned to you, but you may discuss your performance with your tutor. You should note that marks and grades are subject to a process of moderation, which ensures their validity and reliability, and that no result is finalised until confirmed by the Board of Examiners. (see Progression section)

Mobile Phones and Electronic Devices

Mobile telephones must be on silent in the Learning Resource Centres and during all class activities. If you are required to take an important call during class please inform your lecturer in advance. Mobile phones and smart watches should not be brought into Examinations.

Student Discipline

SERC has a responsibility for creating a peaceful and positive learning environment so that all learners can focus on their learning without disruption. At the same time, SERC must ensure that staff have the opportunity to work with learners in safety, in compliance with legal requirements and without unnecessary distraction. To ensure that this is achieved student behaviour and performance is monitored and managed. From time to time appropriate disciplinary action may need to be taken when student behaviour fails to meet an acceptable standard.

The process for managing student performance, behaviour and discipline will take account of the needs of the student and will be applied in a manner that will support the development of appropriate, positive, respectful behaviours and successful learning.

Use of College IT Systems

You are bound by the terms and conditions of the College's Acceptable ICT Use Policy. The College uses web filtering software to block access to prohibited sites and material. In the event that you inadvertently access any offensive or sexually explicit material, for example from a link in an email, you should leave that site immediately and inform both your course tutor and the IT & Services Department giving details of the URL visited.

As stated in the College's Acceptable ICT Use Policy, SERC retains the right to monitor the transmission or storage of material through its computing services if it is suspected that acceptable use has been violated.

Social Media

The following guidance is to help you understand the implications of using both college and/or personal social media. Social media is defined as any type of interactive online media that allows parties to communicate instantly with each other or to share data in a public or internal forum. This constantly changing area includes (but is not limited to):

- Online social forums such as Twitter, Facebook & LinkedIn.
- Blogs, videos and image-sharing websites such as YouTube, Instagram, & TikTok.
- Messaging technologies such as Microsoft Teams, Zoom, Skype, WhatsApp, iMessage & Snapchat.
- Dating apps
- Personal web space

Although SERC permits personal use of social media, you are reminded that access to these facilities is a privilege, and that social media use should not interfere with your responsibilities and commitments during class time. Access to social media is currently permitted by default, however, the principle of privilege and responsibility applies to all students and access may be removed if you fail to meet your responsibilities & commitments.

It is your responsibility to read and act in accordance with the rules and guidelines set out by individual social media sites. However, in addition to these rules, SERC require that you:

- Should not use social media websites to criticise the College, or any staff members, students or third parties.
- Should not use social media websites to abuse, harass staff members, students or any other third parties.
- Must remember not to post any comment, or image that would bring the College into disrepute, or give cause for a third party to consider taking legal action.
- Must not place information pertaining to, or upload image(s) of college staff or other students to any web site without the prior consent being obtained from the staff and student member(s) in question.

You are reminded that the line between Academic, Professional and Personal use of social media is not always clear and personal use can have an impact in the College and on the studies of others. It is therefore important that you bear the following advice in mind when using social media.

When using personal social media, remember that although you are not acting on behalf of SERC, you can impact on the College's reputation if you are identified as being a SERC student. Your online profile may reference SERC's name as your place of study, so make sure that any of your comments/posts are inoffensive and thought-through.

Some online communities can be volatile, tempting users to behave in ways they otherwise would not. Do not forget that anything posted online can be seen by anybody, and that it might not be possible to remove it. Deletion in the online world is neither instant nor permanent and may have an effect later in life.

Online social media material can be retrieved by legal bodies in some cases years after posting. Bodies providing internet access have legal requirements to store material for lengthy periods of time. Think before you post! Remember that prospective employers or universities may trawl social media sites as part of their selection process and the social media posts you make could undermine your future prospects.

Should you encounter or witness any inappropriate behaviour such as bullying or illegal activity on social media, you can talk to your course tutor, seek guidance from the PSNI, or access free, impartial online safety advice on communication and social networking on the Get Safe Online website.

Qualifications and Credit Framework

Higher Education at SERC aims to provide students with the required achieved outcomes detailed in Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications (FHEQ) of the Quality Assurance Agency (QAA).

This framework is an integral part of quality assurance in HE. HE institutions such as SERC use this in planning, delivering and monitoring their study programmes and the awards that come from them, and external quality assurance procedures focus directly on how effectively institutions manage their use of the framework. The numbering of the FHEQ levels correspond with levels 4 to 8 in the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF) for the vocational qualifications system and can assist with transfer and progression between different levels and types of study. The FHEQ also aligns with the Framework for Qualifications of the European Higher Education Area to assist students' and graduates' international mobility.

The FHEQ is based on the concept that qualifications are awarded for the demonstrated achievement of learning outcomes and attainment, rather than the length or content of study. It provides the basis for a shared understanding, for higher education and its key stakeholders, of the link between standards and qualification levels. It aims to support a consistency of approach and transparency about expectations for students and employers by providing a series of general qualification descriptors which summarise the levels of knowledge and understanding and the types of abilities that holders of different qualifications are likely to have.

The HE programmes delivered by SERC reflect the generic outcomes within the FHEQ of the QAA. The bulk of the HE provision at SERC is at credit level 4 and 5 (i.e. Higher National Certificate (HNC), Higher National Diploma (HND), and Foundation Degree (FD)). The College also offers full honours degree programmes at level 6 in some specialist areas. CMI Level 7 qualifications are also offered through our Business Services unit.

Credit levels are indicators of relative demand, complexity and depth of learning and student independence.

A summary of the skills expected to be demonstrated by students studying at Levels 4-6 is detailed below:

Credit Level 4

- knowledge of the underlying concepts and principles associated with their area(s) of study, and an ability to evaluate and interpret these within the context of that area of study
- an ability to present, evaluate and interpret qualitative and quantitative data, in order to develop lines of argument and make sound judgements in accordance with basic theories and concepts of their subject(s) of study

Credit Level 5

- knowledge and critical understanding of the well-established principles of their area(s) of study, and of the way in which those principles have developed
- ability to apply underlying concepts and principles outside the context in which they were first studied, including, where appropriate, the application of those principles in an employment context
- knowledge of the main methods of enquiry in the subject(s) relevant to the named award, and ability to evaluate critically the appropriateness of different approaches to solving problems in the field of study
- an understanding of the limits of their knowledge, and how this influences analyses and interpretations based on that knowledge

Credit Level 6

- a systematic understanding of key aspects of their field of study, including acquisition of coherent and detailed knowledge, at least some of which is at, or informed by, the forefront of defined aspects of a discipline
- an ability to deploy accurately established techniques of analysis and enquiry within a discipline
- conceptual understanding that enables the student:
 - to devise and sustain arguments, and/or to solve problems, using ideas and techniques, some of which are at the forefront of a discipline
 - to describe and comment upon particular aspects of current research, or equivalent advanced scholarship, in the discipline
- an appreciation of the uncertainty, ambiguity and limits of knowledge
- the ability to manage their own learning, and to make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline).

A Programme of Study is comprised of modules which are delivered at a specified credit level detailed below:

| Award | FHEQ Credit Level | Minimum overall credits to be achieved | Typical range of levels of credits |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|---|---|
| Certificate of Higher Education (HNC) | 4 | 120 | 3, 4 |
| Diploma of Higher Education (HND) | 5 | 240 | 3, 4, 5 |
| Foundation Degree | 5 | 240 | 3, 4, 5 |
| Honours Degree | 6 | 360 | 3, 4, 5, 6 |

The UK Quality Code for Higher Education

The UK Quality Code for Higher Education is used to assure the standards and quality of UK higher education. It has been developed and is maintained by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) through consultation with the higher education sector. Individual higher education providers use the Quality Code to ensure students have a high-quality educational experience. It is published online at www.qaa.ac.uk/quality-code.

SERC policies, procedures and processes are all informed by the expectations within the Quality Code. The Quality Code is used to help maintain the academic standards of programmes and awards, assure and enhance the quality of learning opportunities, and to provide information about their higher education provision.

Student representatives and Students' Unions can use the Quality Code in their discussions with the College, as it sets out the minimum expectations for the quality of the learning opportunities the College aims to make available to its students. Students will be encouraged to be involved in these discussions through the College Student Engagement processes.

HE Full-Time (FT) Ethos

Design of programmes ensures that the student learning experience provides current knowledge and skills expected by industry and meets the individual needs of the student. SERC is developing specific characteristics for its HE provision delivered through further education (FE) and they include:

- Producing a work-ready workforce skilled in advanced technical, subject specific skills and knowledge that relates to their chosen area of study e.g. engineering, construction, web-authoring, software engineering;
- Personal development of Meta Skills (M-Skills) including critical thinking, leadership, emotional intelligence, and entrepreneurship;
- Personal Development skills including the capability for independent learning and reflection, problem solving, e-learning and life-long learning;
- Employability skills such as being able to work as part of a team to find solutions to complex problems with people from different backgrounds;
- Widening student participation in HE and supporting those students' development within HE;
- A flexible practical curriculum responsive to economic need that can be delivered with academic rigour.
- These characteristics are integrated within a college FT HE ethos and they include:
 - Bridging courses and support for Essential Skills (ES) to enable participation and progression;
 - Small group and team learning;
 - Project-based learning;
 - Full pastoral care services which contribute to developing the whole person;
 - Retention initiatives to support students to succeed;
 - Opportunities to engage in work-placement;
 - Vocational specific project activities including overseas study and work placements;
 - Curriculum delivery by staff with current industrial/sectoral knowledge.

HE Part-Time (PT) Ethos

The PT HE programmes will incorporate the relevant vocational qualification and where appropriate the associated Essential Skill of Literacy, Numeracy and ICT qualifications. Students enrolling on a PT HE programme will be required to address all elements of the programme. The College will provide guidance for all PT HE students through its internal services and through this Handbook. The College PT HE programmes will allow;

A focus on teaching and learning so that students develop higher level skills of application, analysis, evaluation and the ability for lifelong learning, including capabilities in the use of Virtual Learning Environments (VLEs) in addition to the specific learning outcomes associated with their chosen vocational programme.

- Suitable progression pathways for students from FE programmes within SERC and other educational institutions;
- Opportunities for progression to honours degree programmes at enhanced entry and /or to appropriate employment in the local economy;

Employees engaged in the local economy the opportunity to develop their higher level technical, supervisory and self - development skills in a fashion that is compatible with their current and future skill needs and their working and family commitments.

Personal development of Meta Skills (M-Skills) including critical thinking, leadership, emotional intelligence, and entrepreneurship.

Who's Who?

Explanation of Roles

The management of each course is the responsibility of the Programme Coordinator (also known as Course Team Leader, Course Tutor or Course Director) who is supported by the course tutors (the Course Team).

While the Programme Coordinator and Course Team are responsible for the day to day operation of your course, it is the Principal Lecturer and Head of School who are responsible for the overall management of all courses within their School.

Most of your day to day dealings will be with the Course Tutors and if you have any queries the best starting point is usually with the tutor for the module in question or your Programme Coordinator. You will also be allocated a personal tutor each year, see Tutorial Programme section below. Your personal tutor is someone who can get to know you and support you throughout the course providing support where needed.

It is very important that you stay connected with your programme course team especially if you are facing problems or issues. They will advise you how to access additional help or discuss the issues with you. If the tutors do not know about how you feel they cannot help you – so keep them informed.

College E-mail and Microsoft Teams

The main form of communication with students is via the College e-mail system. You will be given a SERC email account, which you should check regularly as many staff use this to relay information directly to you.

You will also have access to Microsoft Teams which you can use to communicate with both staff and students within the College.

Both Microsoft Outlook and Microsoft Teams are free to download from Google Play and the Apple Store.

When you need to contact a member of staff you should, in the first instance use the staff e-mail system. As with all communications, please be courteous and polite in sending messages. For further information see the Use of College IT systems and Social Media sections.

Course Structure and Content

Student Induction

Induction is a vital part of student education to ensure you are aware of the services you are entitled to and in turn make students aware of their responsibilities. All FT students will undergo a range of induction activities including online modules as well as face to face activities with course tutors and tutors. New areas for induction will be identified and include, student finance, ILT facilities, pastoral care, health and safety etc. Your Programme Coordinator will inform you about induction dates. It is important that you attend these events.

Tutorial Programme

All FT students will be allocated a personal tutor who will carry out regular reviews of progress and target setting as well as having a pastoral care role. All FT students will have a weekly timetabled tutorial which will include career education, cultural diversity, development and monitoring of the Higher Education Achievement Record (HEAR).

Student Placements and Work Experience

A SERC placement can be undertaken as an assessed mandatory component of a course or a non-compulsory opportunity to provide valuable vocational experience. SERC recognises that placements are vital in the successful competition for jobs and provide an opportunity to put the theory taught in the classroom into practice.

Full and part-time students from all disciplines with or without course stipulated placements are encouraged to be involved in work placements. SERC will support students in their search for a placement and expect them to work closely with their tutor and work placement officer who will guide them through the process.

To help in the search SERC has developed a highly functional software system accessible through the Work Placement App, which allows students to search for companies, placement vacancies or to inform staff of placements independently found by students. Placement students, College Placement Staff and Placement Providers are given secure access to their particular information. SERC and the Placement Provider will at all times act in compliance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the United Kingdom Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

Placements could be with a large company or SME (Small Medium Enterprise), in Northern Ireland or overseas. Modes of attendance vary depending on course requirements and can last an academic year or number of weeks, attending one day per week to as many as five days per week. Non-compulsory placements are completed in the student's spare time and must be course related and in agreement with the course tutor.

SERC will put in place the necessary placement documentation to guarantee we have done all that is reasonably possible to ensure students have a safe and rewarding placement. This includes a risk assessment which is completed for each student.

Placement opportunities working with children and/or adults at risk of harm or adults in need of protection may require students to get a valid Access NI clearance. Further details of this process can be found in the SERC Safeguarding, Care and Welfare Procedure on the SERC website.

Access NI is a criminal history disclosure service in Northern Ireland, which provides different levels of information about an individual. An 'enhanced' or 'enhanced with barred list' check is required; this contains the same information as a standard check as well as a check of police records held locally and information from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

SERC will process the applications for full and part-time, higher and further education students. All students are required to pay for their Access NI clearance. Details of work placement staff are provided below:

Work Placement & Competitions Officer

tmitchell@serc.ac.ukInternational Student Support

The International Office is available to advise you on a wide range of issues before and after arrival to the College. We recognise that it can be very difficult adapting to a new culture and in many cases a very different way of learning. Throughout the year we will be offering a number of support sessions for international students, to enable you to understand what is required to achieve success.

As well as helping you understand the requirements of Higher Education, these sessions will allow you to discuss your concerns with a view to addressing misunderstandings.

SERC offers many support services for all students and the International Office will be happy to advise you on where you can get this support. You can contact the International Office as follows:

Email: international@serc.ac.uk

The SERC Learning Experience

Schemes of Work

Schemes of Work (SOW) or Week by Week Schedules for each unit of study will be available on your programme of study site within Moodle by the third teaching week. The SOW will assist students to have knowledge of the running order of lessons and prepare in advance for these through reading or set tasks.

Project-Based Learning

FT programmes will be encouraged to source real projects to enable students to have real life learning experiences with either external partners or even within the College. These projects will be activity based with defined and agreed outcomes, specific milestones and resources and must also meet the requirements of awarding organisation assessment criteria.

Delivery Methods

A range of delivery methods will be used within your Programme of Study.

These may include:

Lectures- The purpose of a lecture is to convey basic knowledge and concepts. You will learn both from the lecture content and from different approaches to the material presented.

Tutorials- There are two types of tutorials – academic and pastoral. The academic tutorial may be individual, or in small groups, but the key element is the interaction between tutor and you around problems that you have raised. They are important in helping you to learn to identify and articulate problems in your work, and to seek help and constructive criticism.

Hybrid Learning- All Programmes of Study are developing a hybrid learning approach. This means that the range of modules within a Programme of Study will use an appropriate variety of learning methods including theory, practical workshop/laboratories, as well as a range of online learning and assessment materials. These methods should help address the range of learning styles that students may have within a class cohort and also help students develop independent learning skills.

Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL)

The accreditation of prior learning is the process by which students may be awarded credits for learning that they have gained in the past and which is relevant to the course for which they have applied.

Accreditation of prior learning usually takes the form of one of the following:

Accreditation of Prior Certificated Learning (APCL) – which is learning for which a certificated has been awarded by an appropriate awarding organisation or academic institution; and Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning (APEL) – this is when you are given credit for past learning which comes from experience rather than a specific course of certificated study.

In either case, it is the responsibility of the student to provide evidence that their prior learning matches the learning outcomes of the sections of the course for which they are claiming prior credit. If you would like to discuss APL further contact your Course Tutor. Full details are found in the Higher Education Accreditation of Prior Learning SOP.

Independent Learning and Personal Development

Students through their HE programme will develop independent learning techniques to enhance their personal development. Therefore, independent learning will be encouraged for all students, appropriate to their skills and experience, through the use of ILT technology, project-based activity, presentation, placement experience and team work activities as well as the range of enrichment activities organised within their Programme of Study.

Higher Education Achievement Records (HEAR)

The Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR) provides a single comprehensive record of a learner's achievement. The HEAR provides a detailed picture of student achievement throughout your time at the College including academic work, graduate qualities (M-Skills) development extra-curricular activities, prizes and employability awards voluntary work and offices held in student union clubs and societies that have been verified by the institution.

Campus and Intercampus Competitions

The College believes that competition is an essential element in developing a student's skills and abilities. Therefore, the College will organise a range of campus and intercampus competitions across a range of curriculum areas to give students the opportunity to raise their technical standards and improve their transversal skills set.

There are two types of competitions that students in Higher Education can participate in - Project Competitions and Skills Competitions. Information can be found in the student intranet Competitions Team site and from tutors.

External Competitions and Awards

SERC endeavours to embed competitions into the core teaching and learning curriculum for students of all levels, therefore the college has been involved in internal competitions for many years, which have led to strong SERC competitors contributing to Northern Ireland FE's performance at UK, European and WorldSkills Levels.

Course teams, supported by the Competitions Manager will identify appropriate competitions and the process for selecting students to participate. These can also be used to select the students that will enter for Regional, National, and International competitions.

Meta Skills

Meta Skills (M-Skills) are timeless, higher-order transversal skills that create adaptive, high-performing learners and promote success in whatever context the future brings. As a student at SERC, you will develop Meta Skills including critical thinking, leadership, emotional intelligence, and entrepreneurship.

Employability Skills

Through their vocational programme all students will be encouraged to develop the skills of working with others, improving own learning and problem solving. Programme teams will also identify appropriate and relevant enrichment activities including work experience and qualifications linked to vocational aspirations of the groups of students. Employability qualifications are an integral part of the programme and are valuable when seeking graduate employment.

Local Site Visits and Study Trips

Visits to local companies and businesses are an important part of the curriculum by giving the FT student an appreciation of a real working environment. Course coordinators will organise a number of visits appropriate to the Programme of Study. Students may be asked to make a contribution to the cost of these visits.

Guest Speakers

The College aims to enrich the student learning experience through engaging guest speakers from industries relevant to the curriculum area. Course coordinators along with their teams will organise a number of guest speakers appropriate to their Programme of Study with a view to linking it to an assessment opportunity.

International Cultural Visits and Study Trips

The College aims to provide students with the opportunity to participate in local and international study trips to broaden their experience vocationally and culturally. The international team will work with course coordinators and course teams to identify links with partners across Europe and internationally and explore the opportunity to access funding to support the financial cost.

Entrepreneurship and Enterprise

The College aims to accelerate the awareness amongst students of enterprise and provide opportunities to support business ideas generation and incubation. To develop these skills a range of activities will be embedded in your Programme of Study led by the College Enterprise Champions and supported by course teams.

Student Engagement

Higher Education teams in the College strive to provide a quality learning experience that meets your expectations. Your feedback on that experience is important to the College and you will be invited to provide your views in a number of ways. Further information can be found in the Student Engagement section of the Higher Education Programmes SOP in the Policies and Procedures section on the SERC Website.

Class Representatives

A class representative is voted for annually. They will represent the class at college and programme meetings to discuss areas for improvement and development of the programme.

Staff-Student Consultative Meetings

Twice a year the Course Team will meet with students to ask them about issues and queries that they may have about the programme. This is an opportunity to discuss ideas and hear external feedback such as the External Examiner's comments on the programme. Minutes will be taken, and course tutors will provide feedback on issues raised.

Focus Groups

Occasionally you may be invited by the College to join a focus group. These look in depth at specific issues of interest or concern. Generally, feedback will be given via the College intranet or your Course tutors.

Student Surveys

Student feedback is extremely important to SERC and the Course Team. The results feed into programme self-evaluations and enable critique of all aspects of the module and will inform future delivery. Students are also asked to complete online first impressions and general surveys about the facilities and experience on the programme. All surveys are anonymous and are for your benefit and future applicants who are considering joining the programme.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment

Programme Assessment

Assessment Schedules

The assessment schedule is aimed at streamlining assessments across all of the modules within a Programme of Study and to ensure that there is a variety of assessment methods used. All students will receive an assessment schedule for each year of the Programme of Study. The assessment schedule should be available on Moodle within the first 3 weeks of a module starting. It will provide an outline of what is expected and allow self-responsibility for learning and progression.

Assessment Methods

Tutors will devise a range of assessment methods such as written, practical, peer, e-assessment and examinations. Students must submit written assignments electronically through the College approved plagiarism checker software. When received on time these will be marked and returned electronically within 3 weeks of submission. Tutors will store all assignment feedback and returns for quality purposes. All students will be expected to keep electronic or hard copies of their submitted work. There will be further details about the forms of assessment for each unit on your Programme of Study Moodle site.

Submission of Assessments

The submission of assignments will follow the regulations required by the relevant awarding organisation, accessed on the SERC Website under Assessment Regulations and Key Forms section. Most assignments will be submitted and receipted electronically. It is your responsibility to keep a backup copy of your work. If a physical hand-in location is required your tutor will advise you.

Feedback on Progress

The College views feedback as an important learning tool for students. Students will receive written feedback three weeks after submission (if they have met submission deadlines) to the module tutor (this will include one week for cross marking purposes). Feedback should be constructive which will identify areas of good practice evident in the submitted work and indicate how a student could improve their work or future work. The grade will reflect the adjectives used in the feedback. The process of feedback may vary depending upon the awarding organisation.

Academic Practices

The College requires certain basic standards to be met by Higher Education students, these are outlined in Appendix 1.

Academic Malpractice

There are several offences that constitute as academic malpractice.

Plagiarism and Malpractice

Plagiarism is “The failure to acknowledge sources properly and/or the submission of another person’s work as if it were the candidate’s own” (Joint Council for Qualifications, 2004). A strict interpretation of the term ‘work’ in this definition would include original ideas as well as published words or artefacts or work previously submitted by other candidates/learners. Plagiarism is on the increase and students should be aware that tutors have a responsibility to identify and report any suspected instances of plagiarism. Several forms of plagiarism exist, ranging from purchasing whole assignments via the Internet, through partial plagiarism to unconscious plagiarism.

The following are dishonest and therefore unacceptable and not allowed by the College:

- Taking someone else’s work (including another students), images or ideas and passing it off as your own (this is called Plagiarism).

- The misuse or covert use of Artificial Intelligence tools to complete or partial complete assessments and passing it off as your own work.
- Using the computer, the internet, or information stored on a hard copy or USB which belongs to someone else and passing it off as your own.
- Cheating, that is acting unfairly or dishonestly to gain an advantage.
- Contract Cheating which involves a student engaging with and paying a third part to complete an assessment on their behalf
- Secretly, agreeing with another to deceive, this is known as collusion i.e. unauthorised co-operation between a student and another person in the preparation and production of work which is presented as the student's own.
- Students should not lend or borrow notes and disks as it can lead to plagiarism, cheating and collusion.
- Personation- assuming the identify of a student with the intent to deceive during a piece of assessment by complete the work on behalf of the student

Artificial Intelligence and Malpractice

Artificial Intelligence (AI) use refers to the use of AI tools to obtain information and content which might be used in work produced for assessments which lead towards qualifications. While the range of AI tools, and their capabilities, is likely to expand greatly in the near future, misuse of AI tools in relation to qualification assessments at any time constitutes malpractice. Teachers and students should also be aware that AI tools are still being developed and there are often limitations to their use, such as producing inaccurate or inappropriate content.

AI chatbots are AI tools which generate text in response to user prompts and questions. Users can ask follow-up questions or ask the chatbot to revise the responses already provided. AI chatbots respond to prompts based upon patterns in the data sets (large language model) upon which they have been trained. They generate responses which are statistically likely to be relevant and appropriate. AI chatbots can complete tasks such as the following:

- Answering questions
- Analysing, improving, and summarising text
- Authoring essays, articles, fiction, and non-fiction

- Writing computer code
- Translating text from one language to another
- Generating new ideas, prompts, or suggestions for a given topic or theme
- Generating text with specific attributes, such as tone, sentiment, or formality

AI chatbots currently available include:

- ChatGPT (<https://chat.openai.com>)
- Jenni AI (<https://jenni.ai>)
- Jasper AI (<https://www.jasper.ai/>)
- Writesonic (<https://writesonic.com/chat/>)
- Bloomai (<https://huggingface.co/bigscience/bloom>)
- Google Bard

There are also AI tools which can be used to generate images, such as:

- Midjourney (<https://midjourney.com/showcase/top/>)
- Stable Diffusion (<https://stablediffusionweb.com/>)
- Dalle-E 2 (OpenAI) (<https://openai.com/dall-e-2/>)

The following are dishonest and therefore unacceptable and not allowed by the College:

- Copying or paraphrasing sections of AI-generated content so that the work is no longer the student's own
- Copying or paraphrasing whole responses of AI-generated content
- Using AI to complete parts of the assessment so that the work does not reflect the student's own work, analysis, evaluation or calculations
- Failing to acknowledge use of AI tools when they have been used as a source of information
- Incomplete or poor acknowledgement of AI tools
- Submitting work with intentionally incomplete or misleading references or bibliographies.

Cheating during exams

Where a student uses inadmissible materials or any other material during an exam, other than those approved by the invigilator. Cheating during exams will also include the act of copying and the act of collusion where students signal answers to other students during an exam or share exam content with students after an exam with the intent for them to gain an unfair advantage.

Falsification or fabrication

Falsification or fabrication involves the unauthorised creation of false information/data, or the alteration of information/data within a piece of assessment while presenting this information as genuine.

Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct includes acts of dishonesty, deception and fraud through the attempts to gain an unfair academic advantage. If you are discovered or suspected of any of the above, the College will investigate using the HE Academic Misconduct procedure which specifies process and possible penalties. Academic misconduct and malpractice is viewed very seriously by the College and can be viewed as gross misconduct. The Academic Misconduct in HE procedure is found within Section 10 of the Higher Education Programmes SOP on the SERC Website.

To avoid Plagiarism and the misuse/ covert use of Artificial Intelligence tools, students should carefully note the following guidance on referencing in Appendix 1. HE students will be expected to submit written assessments through the College approved plagiarism checker software. Malpractice refers to all misconduct in relation to assessment and includes:

- Plagiarism of any nature
- Misuse/ covert use of Artificial Intelligence (AI)
- Copying
- Collusion
- Personation
- Contract Cheating
- Cheating during exams
- Falsification or fabrication

Incidences of academic misconduct will be dealt with following the HE procedures for the relevant Awarding Organisation as previously identified and any resulting disciplinary action will follow the Student and Trainee Disciplinary and Behaviour Policy and SOP.

Academic Appeals & Complaints

SERC wants your experience to be positive but sometimes there may be issues that concern you. You should feel free to discuss areas of concern, whatever they may be, with your tutors. It is always better to do this as soon as possible so that these can be resolved. There may be times, however, when a formal approach is needed, and procedures exist to help you do this.

Academic Appeals and Complaints are different and operate under two separate procedures.

An Academic Appeal is a formal request within specific grounds to review decisions made by the Higher Education Assessment and Examination Board on progression, assessment and awards.

A complaint is a formal expression of dissatisfaction made by either a single student or a group of students about the provision of their programme of study or related academic service or facility or any other service provided by the College.

The Academic Appeals Procedure cannot be used to bring complaints.

Academic Appeals

Your rights to appeal are detailed in the Academic Appeals section on the SERC Website and Appendix 5 of this Handbook. Please note there are two separate processes depending on your programme of study: 1. SERC Appeals Process and 2. LJMU Academic Appeals Process which follows the University's own process. Remember once you have exhausted the SERC's internal procedures you can appeal to your Awarding Organisation.

You can also refer to the Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman (NIPSO). For further information on this procedure and the areas covered please see www.nipso.org.uk.

Complaints and Compliments

SERC is committed to providing the highest quality of service to all our customers. If a customer is not satisfied with the quality of service provided by the College or College staff, they have the right to complain. The College will ensure that any issues or problems raised are resolved as quickly and as close to the source as possible, to the satisfaction of all concerned. We would encourage customers to seek to resolve any issues informally with the relevant member of staff in the first instance, however where this is not possible or a resolution cannot be found, customers may submit* a formal complaint in writing by either:

- Completing a complaints form, available at campus reception points;
- Emailing complaints@serc.ac.uk;
- Submitting complaint online - Complaint - SERC

*If you require assistance in submitting a complaint, please make this known to reception staff, and assistance will be provided.

The College also welcomes compliments from customers. If we have excelled at something, we would love to hear from you. You can pass on your compliment by contacting the staff member concerned, emailing compliments@serc.ac.uk, completing a compliments form, available at campus reception points, or submitting compliment online - Compliment - SERC.

All complaints and compliments received are recorded on an electronic register. If the comment is positive, we will ensure that the member of staff involved is informed. If the comment is not positive, you will receive an acknowledgement letter within five working days*, and a senior member of staff will then investigate the matter and advise you of the outcome in writing within a further 20 working days.

* Working days are those days on which the College is open. Weekends, statutory days, Bank Holidays and other college closures are classed as 'non-working' days.

Completed complaints or compliments forms can be returned to any campus reception point marked for the attention of the Senior Customer Services Officer.

The College's full Complaints and Compliments Policy is located on our website www.serc.ac.uk

Once you have exhausted the College’s Complaints Process you can still approach the Awarding Organisation if you remain dissatisfied. You can also refer to NIPSO. For further information please visit www.nipso.org.uk.

PROGRESSION

Progression

Internal Moderation, Cross-marking and Role of the External Examiner

Course teams will complete cross-marking and moderation of assignment grades/marks. Assignment grades/marks are not finalised until ratified by the College Examination Board and issued by the Examinations office. Any grades/marks given prior to this are only as an interim indication of performance and to assist with your development.

An External Examiner (EE) is appointed to monitor all assessed work and the grades awarded by the Course Team. The EE is appointed by the awarding organisation and reports annually to the College. The EE acts as both a 'critical friend' to the Course Team, giving them the benefit of his/her experience and advising them on how to develop and manage the programme in accordance with developing national practice, and as an advisor on the interpretation and application of national academic quality standards. Students often meet the EE and his comments are reported at Staff-Student Consultative meetings.

Higher Education Progress and Examination Board

All HE programmes are monitored by an Education Progress and Examination Boards. A Progress Board for each course is convened in January and an Examination Board in June (with a supplementary examination board in August if necessary).

It is the Examination Board that ratifies decisions concerning module grades, progression from one year to the next and the awarding of final qualifications. If you have not achieved the required grade in a module it is the Examination Board that decides what further action should be taken, having considered the recommendations of the Course Team.

Your grades/marks only become final following the College Examination Board any grades given to you up to that point must be viewed as interim.

Specific rules governing progression can be found in the individual awarding organisation regulations accessed under the Assessment Regulations and Key Forms section on the SERC Website.

Publication of Results

You will be advised of your results, as agreed at the Examinations Board (College or University) within seven working days of the Board's meeting. Results remain provisional until ratified by the Awarding Organisation/ Body following their Academic Regulations.

Recommendation for Award

A Higher Level qualification is awarded to candidates who successfully complete all modules of study.

Re-sit Examinations and Resubmission of Coursework

Re-sit examinations and resubmission of coursework will normally be held early to mid-August. You will be informed in writing of dates for re-sit examinations that you are required to take. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are available for the re-sits.

Re-sit Fees and Re-sit of Unit

Re-sit fees will apply only if you have failed by the August supplementary examination board. A fee of £45 to cover administration and marking will be applied for each element of course work to be submitted following the August examination board. These fees will apply where there is resubmission without attendance. The Course Coordinator will agree a resubmission date with the student. All work must be completed and outstanding fees paid by Halloween. If a unit is agreed be carried over at the August Examination Board, then a fee will incur based on the current fees policy.

Withdrawal from the Course

If you wish to withdraw from your course you should arrange an appointment with your Programme Coordinator to discuss your concerns and reasons for wishing to withdraw. If, after this discussion, you still wish to withdraw you should notify your Programme Coordinator in writing.

You can contact the Careers Advice section to discuss options available to you. If you decide to withdraw, please note that you will still be liable to pay tuition fees. Higher Education Students who withdraw from, or go on a leave of absence, will be charged a tuition fee as detailed below:

| Withdrawal Dates | Fee Liability |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| From first day of term until 6 January 2025 | 25% of the full annual tuition fee |
| From 6 January 2025 until 11 April 2025 | 50% of the full annual tuition fee |
| From 11 April 2025 | 100% of the full annual tuition fee |

If you are receiving a tuition fee loan from Student Finance NI, they will cover payment up to and including the term in which you withdraw. You will be liable for paying the College any fees which are not supported by Student Finance NI / Student Loans Company. It is important that you notify both the College and Student Finance NI promptly if you withdraw as any overpayment of maintenance grant/loan funding will have to be repaid to the Student Loans Company immediately.

Future Entitlement

If you decide to withdraw, you may have no immediate intention of returning to higher education. However, it is still important to understand how withdrawal from a course can affect your loan or grant entitlement from Student Finance NI / Student Loans Company if you decide later to return to either full or part-time higher education.

Collection of Certificates

It is your responsibility to:

- Contact the College if you have not received notification of your results within 3 months of finishing your course. The College will investigate the reasons for the delay.
- Collect all certificates due to you within one year of finishing your course. Certificates not collected within 1 year will be kept in line with the Awarding Organisation/ Body requirements.
- Ensure all changes in contact details e.g., address/mobile number are communicated to the College so we can send communications regarding results and certificates.

SAFEGUARDING, CARE AND WELFARE

Safeguarding, Care and Welfare

Our Learner Welfare is centred on promoting your personal development and wellbeing as you complete your qualifications. We work to foster positive attitudes within the College by promoting tolerance, resilience, fairness and equal opportunities for all so that every student can achieve to their full potential.

Our staff provide support to students through a tutorial programme and we also run activities and events at each Campus which aim to enhance student wellbeing and resilience.

However, from time to time we all meet challenges within our lives, for example health and mental health concerns, caring responsibilities, family problems, financial worries or housing issues, and SERC has arrangements in place to help ensure that our students can get the help that they need when they need it.

Any member of staff who is concerned about the wellbeing of a student will raise their concern through the College's cause for concern App. The Learner Welfare team will review the situation and arrange for the right support to be put in place.

SERC works closely with the South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust, Inspire, Action Mental Health, Ascertain and others in providing information and care for our students.

SERC seeks to provide a positive, safe and supportive learning environment for all students including those who may be transsexual, transgender or undergoing gender reassignment. However, for the College to be able to specifically support students it is essential that the student discloses their concerns by talking to a member of staff who will signpost them to the Learner Welfare team. All students are assured that any issues raised will be dealt with confidentially and in a non-judgemental manner. Further details can be found in the Safeguarding, Care and Welfare Standard Operating Procedure.

Health, Welfare and Counselling

Inspire Counselling

As a SERC student you will have access to Inspire who are an independent source of support and counselling. Inspire can be contacted for free, confidential and immediate support on 0800 098 8816. This number is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and we recommend all students to save it onto their mobile phone.

Once you have made the call to Inspire, their trained staff can assign a specific counsellor to work with you on an independent and confidential basis. This counselling can take place by phone, in person or using video call technology, and the College can set up a private area for you to take such a call.

It is also important to note that students can call Inspire Students at any time for support and assistance, and this does not necessarily need to progress to formal counselling. Sometimes all we need is someone independent to talk to who will listen and guide us.

You can also sign up to the Inspire HUB which has lots of practical resources to help you. To sign up, visit the HUB here Inspire HUB and your unique PIN is SERCHUB.

Youth Health Advice Service (YHAS)

During their time at the College many young people have many health-related worries and to help students to deal with these issues the Youth Health Advice Service has been established in partnership with the South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust. All students (and young people within the area) can talk to a professional who can advise and guide them appropriately.

Expert help and advice can be provided in relation to:

- The use of alcohol and drugs
- Ongoing health worries or concerns
- Testing for sexually transmitted diseases (not involving any intimate examination)
- Pregnancy testing
- The availability of Emergency Hormonal Contraception (morning after pill)
- Advice on contraception and the provision of condoms

- Support for those who want to stop smoking
- Signposting to appropriate organisations to help those with emotional issues such as anxiety or depression.

You can contact the team by email at YHAS@setrust.hscni.net or by phone on 07753 310352. Alternatively, you can visit the website Youth Health Advice Service and complete a Youth Health Advice Request Form. When you have submitted your form, a Youth Health Advice Nurse will contact you.

In addition, all students will have the opportunity to complete a short online training package that focuses on Healthy Online relationships. Through the programme you will learn to question behaviours online and know what actions to take to protect yourself and others. Some of the key topics covered in the programme include sexting, grooming, exploitation, bullying and scams. You can access the programme here Healthy Online Relationships Sign Up.

Student Support

SERC is committed to ensuring that all students and trainees are protected from harm and abuse while they attend / avail of the College services. To enable the College to achieve this a range of support services are in place at each campus. If at any time any student or trainee (whether in college or while attending a work placement) experiences any issues, they should immediately raise that issue with a member of staff. All such issues will be dealt with using the College procedures, and if necessary the College will work with appropriate external agencies (e.g. PSNI, Social Services etc).

Who's Who on Campus?

Questions concerning your work should be addressed to the relevant unit tutor on your course. More general matters on course administration should be taken up with your Programme Coordinator.

If you have personal difficulties during your course, speak to your tutor, or any member of staff, in the first instance who will advise and signpost you, depending on the nature of your concern. Please remember that no issue is too small to raise with a member of staff.

Learning Support

The Learning Support team works with students who face additional challenges due to physical disabilities, long-term medical conditions or learning difficulties. A member of the team will work with you to identify the best way to help as you learn at SERC. This could, for example, include access to a laptop with specialist software; an orthopaedic chair or adjustable desk; one to one support with a Learning Support Assistant; or access to a British Sign Language Interpreter. We can also advise your teaching team on how best to support your individual needs.

We will also work with the Examinations team to make sure any suitable adjustments are put in place for you at exam time. You will need to provide appropriate evidence for this, and we can help you collect any medical evidence necessary for the Awarding Body to approve these arrangements.

All students requiring Learning Support are responsible for disclosing their need and for providing the evidence of this to Learning Support staff as soon as possible, ideally at the beginning of their course. If you do not provide the appropriate evidence by any stipulated cut off point, it may result in the College not being able to provide the appropriate adjustments.

Disabled Students' Allowance

For Higher Education students, any extra costs of studying, arising from a disability, such as travel costs, additional non-medical support and equipment are funded by Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) provided by the Education Authority. More details can be found here Student Finance Northern Ireland

DSA is not based on financial circumstances and there is no age limit. Part-time HE students are also eligible for DSA. To have support funded through DSA a HE student must first apply to the Education Authority (EA). The Learning Support Unit will assist HE applicants and students to apply to the EA for the DSA. HE students are therefore strongly advised to make contact with staff from the Learning Support unit as soon as possible so that this process is instigated in good time to ensure that appropriate arrangements are in place as soon as possible.

Learning Support can be contacted by email (learning-support@serc.ac.uk), from your student portal, or in person at each Campus.

Students' Union

As an enrolled student at the College, you are automatically a member of SERC Students' Union (SERCSU). SERCSU exists to promote the interests and the voice of students and champions the education and personal development of its members through the election of student officers and representatives.

Elected officers provide a channel of communication and means of engagement between students and the College staff, management, and governing body.

SERCSU aims to represent and support the general welfare and inclusivity of the diverse student body through various campaigns, health and wellbeing activities, volunteering opportunities, clubs, societies, and social events. Getting involved with SERCSU offers a unique opportunity for students to influence and make a difference to the student experience at SERC. You can do this by becoming an elected member of the Student Leadership Team, becoming a Class Representative or by joining our volunteering committee. These opportunities enable students to make a positive contribution to the wider student community while developing personally and professionally. If you are a Student Carer, you can make us aware when completing your online application forms, alternatively you can contact us at studentcarers@serc.ac.uk during your studies. We will then contact you confidentially and discuss how we will support you to successfully complete your course. Submission of assessment work, study patterns, signposting to financial assistance and networking are just some of the ways in which we can help you. If you require any further information, please get in touch at studentcarers@serc.ac.uk. Further information may also be found at the link SERC Student Carers.

SERC has achieved the Carers Federation Quality Standard in Carer Support accreditation through the Driving Change Project. This award acknowledges that we recognise Student Carers contribution and have robust Student Carer support services in place.

IT Help

General Guidance

IT can be complex and confusing, so we do our best to try to simplify things for you. We've created a special website to help you which can be accessed from the IT Support Hub icon on the desktop of all college PCs, and also from this link: <http://www.serc.ac.uk/helpme>

You will always find the most up to date information and help here. The site can be used to report faults, get help and training, access remote apps that let you work from home and access information about discounted and free software that you get as a student.

If you are really stuck, you can call 028 9127 6767, leaving your name, student ID, a return phone number and description of the problem you are experiencing and we will call you back between 09:00 and 17:00.

User Accounts

As a student at SERC, you will be issued with a username & password that will give you access to E-Mail, Online Storage, access to the College Virtual Learning Environment (Moodle) and a range of other services & benefits. The account is yours, and you should not share the account or your password with anyone.

Your username is also your email address and is normally written as eight numbers and then finished with an '@serc.ac.uk' suffix. For example, the account for Sam Smith might look like 50099999@serc.ac.uk

You should make every effort to protect your account, including locking your PC/Mac whilst unattended. This can be done using 'Ctrl + Alt + Del' and selecting "Lock this computer" or the Windows Key & the letter 'L' on your keyboard.

Storage of Files & Documents

As a student, you have been allocated 25GB of storage in the College's Office 365 Service, known as OneDrive. The key advantage for you is that OneDrive enables you to access your files/documents from any internet connected device, including tablets, PC, Macs or even on your mobile phone.

Before we go any further, you should know that the use of portable media, i.e. USB Keys, is strongly discouraged. You should consider using OneDrive for all file storage. OneDrive brings strong protection for your data in terms of backup, versioning and Malware/ransomware protection.

When you are on a college PC, you can see OneDrive to the side of the Windows Explorer. You should save your files here.

If you are in a Microsoft Office product such as Word or Excel, you can also save directly to OneDrive.

If you are at home, you can access your college OneDrive by clicking on the 'OneDrive' link in the 'Apps' section of the Student Intranet or by typing www.onedrive.com into your web browser. If you are prompted to login, use your college email address and password and then select the 'Work or School Account' option. Apps are also available for Mobile Phones & Tablet devices for all major platforms. Simply search for 'OneDrive' in your device's App Store.

Finally, as a student, you are entitled to download and install Microsoft Office onto up to five of your personal PCs, MACs, Laptops, Tablet & Phone Devices. To download the software, navigate to www.office.com and sign in with your college username & password. We ask that you also encourage your fellow students to avail of this free service too. There are other services and benefits that are available to you. This will be communicated at the start of the academic year.

Password Protection Standards

Passwords are an important aspect of computer security. They form the front-line protection for users' accounts. A poorly chosen password may result in the compromise of the College's entire network. As such, you are responsible for taking the appropriate steps to select and secure your password.

You are strongly advised not to use the same password for SERC accounts as you may use for other non SERC accounts such as personal e-mail accounts, banking accounts, PIN numbers, or any other account. The College requires that passwords be 15 characters long. This change is enforced automatically by the system.

You should not share your password with anyone, including classmates, administrative assistants or line managers. If someone demands a password, refer them to this document or have them call someone in the IT & Services department.

You should never disclose your password in response to an email or phone call purporting to be from the IT department. The IT & Services department should not and will not ask an end user to divulge their password.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is not permissible to:

- Reveal the password over the telephone to anyone.
- Reveal a password in a single e-mail message.
- Reveal a password to a manager or lecturer.
- Reveal a password to co-workers for their use while you are on holiday.
- Talk about a password in front of others.
- Hint at the format of a password.
- Reveal a password on questionnaires or security forums.
- Share a password with family members.
- Write passwords down and store them anywhere in your office.
- Store passwords in a file or on ANY device without encryption.
- Use the “Remember Password” feature of applications on devices, unless the device is password protected and uses encrypted storage.

The single exception to the above guidance applies if you have a specific physical and/or learning need. In this scenario, a support worker may, with your consent, be allowed to hold knowledge of your password for the purposes of assisting you with your study.

If you suspect your password has been compromised, report the incident to the IT & Services Department and change your password immediately.

General Password Guidelines

The College requires the use of complex & strong passwords. The following characteristics are required:

- Passwords need to be at least 15 characters long and no longer than 127 characters
- Passwords should not contain either your username or your forename & surname
- The space character can be used in a password, but this is not a requirement
- Passwords must contain characters from three of the following categories
 - Uppercase letters (A through Z)
 - Lowercase letters (a through z)
 - Numbers (0 through 9)
 - Non-alphanumeric characters (special characters): (~!@#%&* _+=`|\(){}[]:;'"<>,.?/)

Note: Currency symbols such as the Euro or British Pound are not counted as special characters for this policy setting.

Users are asked to consider a 'passphrase' instead of a password. Passphrases can be a sentence, song title or other phrase that is easy to remember. Some example passphrases would be:

- The Only Way 1s Up!
- H0ld the d00r!
- My fav0rite c0l0ur is Red

Passwords should never be written down or stored online as clear text. Users should also avoid common usage words such as:

- Your forename, surname, name of family, pets, friends, co-workers, course title etc.
- Computer terms and names, commands, sites, companies, hardware, software.
- SERC, South Eastern Regional College.
- Birthdays and other personal information such as addresses and phone numbers.
- Word or number patterns like 1234567, abcdefghi, qwertyuiop etc.

- Any of the above spelled backwards.
- Any of the above preceded or followed by a digit (e.g. password1).

Additional Security Measures

The safety & security of your information is our highest priority. In order to ensure that we can protect you, there are two additional security measures that we have in place that will directly affect you.

The first restriction involves a special security feature, known as Two Factor Authentication (2FA) or Multi Factor Authentication (MFA). This is a requirement for all users on the College network. You will be required to setup 2FA during the setup of your new SERC account or alternatively, you can visit our guide at www.serc.ac.uk/2fa to learn more.

When working on a college computer, you will only need to use your username & password when logging on. However, if you are on a personal device, such as a laptop, tablet or phone, you will be required to use 2FA to login.

In addition, access to college computing facilities is geographically restricted to the UK & Ireland. So, if you were going to Spain, you would not be able to access your account. If you are on a college trip or on holiday and wish to have access to your account when away, you should contact the College IT team via the College ServiceDesk (servicedesk.serc.ac.uk) and submit an 'International Travel Request' fault.

Online Study

As part of your course, the College intends to deliver a small portion of your course 'Online'. There are several benefits for you with this approach:

- You will gain an understanding of the technology & tools needed to effectively communicate when working at a distance.
- Home working has become an option in many jobs. Understanding how to work effectively from home will help you in your future career.
- If you must isolate due to sickness, you can still participate in your classes.
- If there is another lockdown, you will know what you need to do.

What does 'Online Study' mean?

'Online Study' means that you can participate in your lesson from the comfort of your home. It can be in your Study (if you are lucky), the kitchen table, dining room table or even in your bedroom. You just need some peace to concentrate and to ensure you do not annoy others.

Do I need an internet connection?

Yes. To work online, you will need at minimum a broadband internet connection e.g. BT, Talk Talk, Sky, Virgin Media etc. You can also use the data connection from your phone, however, due to the high cost of mobile data, you should not use this for activities such as video conferencing unless you understand the consequences.

What equipment do I need?

You will need the following:

- At a minimum, to participate in video conferences, you need a smartphone or tablet with a camera capable of running Microsoft Teams. We suggest that, if you have a phone, you use the case or stand that will support a phone on a desk so that you can focus on your work and not worry about holding the phone.
- You can also video conference if you have a PC, Mac, Laptop or Chromebook, but you will need to ensure that you have a webcam and speakers or headphones.
- To participate in interactive lessons, a device larger than a smartphone is strongly recommended. Ideally, you will need a tablet device or PC, Mac, Laptop or Chromebook.
- If you are studying in a specialist area such as engineering and need to use specialist software, you will need a device with a trackpad or mouse. This might be a PC, Mac, Laptop or Chromebook as some specialist applications do not work well with touch screens.

Note: You can even use two devices at the same time as most mobile phones are an excellent, high quality webcam substitute. Install MS Teams on both devices and experiment.

Optimising Your Environment

Try to do the following:

- Select a suitable workspace, which is:

- free from distraction
- quiet
- does not inconvenience others
- allows you space to make notes etc.
- Sit in a chair that allows you to be comfortable for the duration of your lesson

Switch on your Camera if possible

Turning on your camera during a class allows you to maximise the communication channel, adding more sentiment and expressions that spice up the discussion and enables you to listen more effectively. In fact, studies show that people are better able to comprehend and recall complex information when they can observe the speaker's nonverbal gestures.

However, when a camera is switched on, it may allow part of your home to be visible to others. For this reason, please make sure that the camera does not pick up private information e.g., lists or photographs on a wall, or private personal effects. The College recommends that you use a standard background, available on Teams or that you use the "blur" function. These suggestions are to help you to protect yourself.

Microphones

You are expected to keep your microphone on mute when not required to speak and to use the chat function to ask the lecturer a question, or to use the "put your hand up" function to get the tutors attention. Remember that when online, there may be many others asking questions, so patience may be required until the lecturer gets a suitable moment to address your question.

Other Points

Please make sure that you have notepad, pen or any other course material available to you:

- Remember that your online lesson is designed to help you to learn. Having other people in the room or chatting on social media will distract you. If it is only possible for you to participate from a room that others may have to use it is requested that you use headphones to minimise any disruption.
- You should not record any online classes etc without first obtaining the permission of all of those who will be participating, including the tutor.

- When attending an online class, the Colleges rules regarding respect for others including staff still apply. Failure to do comply with these requirements may result in:
 - your permissions to participate in online classes being withdrawn.
 - more formal disciplinary procedures being applied online with the Student / Trainee Performance, Behaviour and Disciplinary Management Procedures.

If at any time you feel concerned that something you said or did online could be misconstrued, or if someone else is behaving inappropriately towards you, please raise it immediately with your tutor.

The College's online equipment and technologies are there to help you to learn and it should only be used for this purpose. As with all technology it is your responsibility to use it and to behave in a manner that is appropriate.

What about software?

Studying at SERC comes with some great advantages. Firstly, as a registered student, you are entitled to download, install and use Microsoft 365 applications for free, including Word, PowerPoint, Excel, Teams and many other useful apps. See www.serc.ac.uk/freesoftware for more info.

The College also offers a 'Remote App' service, so if you are using specialist software such as AutoCAD, Sage Accounts, Visual Studio or any other specialist apps, you can use them on your home PC, Mac, Laptop or Chromebook. You do not need to install the software itself, just a small client app that connects back to the College. This service is available 24 hours a day just for you! Get more info at www.serc.ac.uk/remoteapps

There are lots of other benefits too, e.g. discounts on equipment such as laptops, and services including Spotify, Amazon Prime etc. Visit <http://www.serc.ac.uk/helpme> for the most up to date offers and help.

APPENDICES

Appendices

Appendix 1 - Guidance on Academic Practices

Guidance on Academic Practices

Academic Practices

As a higher education student at SERC you will learn to prepare assessments to meet academic practices expected for your level of study. Guidance can be found in the Study Resources section on the student intranet.

These practices include:

- Take comprehensive notes through lectures, classes and when researching topics.
- Consistent use of the Harvard Reference System to give credit to the work of others by quoting and referencing correctly.
- Including a bibliography when submitting every assignment.
- Following the College presentation requirements when writing assignments. These are using Arial typeface, 12 point, line and a half spacing, double for paragraphs, justified at left with a table of contents, bibliography and Harvard referencing.
- Developing and using an academic style.

Note Taking

Note taking is a fundamental academic skill. It is not just about writing something down from your reading so that you can use it later. It is too easy to simply copy something directly from your reading and forget that you took it down word for word. This can easily lead to plagiarism but of more importance is that you really learn by putting things down in your own words. This will show that you understand what you have read and its value and importance to the area you are studying.

How to take notes – a few tips. We will all find our own style but here is some guidance to start:

- Use key words, phrases and abbreviations
- Look for relevant points – do not be tempted to write out large chunks
- Use your own words to summarise main points and be critical of what is being said. Ask questions of the material

- Question what you have read – is it a valuable source?
- Careful document where the information is from and write down a full reference of citation using Harvard reference. This will save time later when you need the details for your assessment.

There are times when you want to note down a particularly good quotation – make sure that you identify in your notes that this is a verbatim quotation. Try using a different colour, type face or simply quotation marks to do this.

Developing and Using an Academic Style

- Higher level study seeks to develop your analytical, critical and problem solving skills. To demonstrate these, you will need to learn to write academically. This includes:
- Writing in the third person
- Do not use ‘I’ except in reflective work for example log-books
- No text speak or use of colloquial terms

A reference in the text, or as a footnote, should show at least the name of the author, the year of publication and the page number: for example: (Morrison, 2000, pg.29)

Candidates must also include a bibliography at the end of their work, which lists details of publications that have been used to research their project. For example: Morrison, A. (2000) Mary, Queen of Scots. , London: Weston Press.

For material taken from web pages, the reference must show the precise web page, not the search engine used to locate it. This can be copied from the address line. For example: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/arts>

For individual works found through the Internet, the reference should show the details as in (b), above, plus the URL and the date assessed. For example: Airey, C (2004). The State of Play Today (Online) 6th Edition. Available: <http://classics.mit.edu/Plato/republic.html> (20th September 2001)

Further guidance on referencing will be provided by your Programme Coordinator or can be obtained from the online learning resources and the student intranet.

Harvard Referencing System

The use of the Harvard Referencing system will be explained during tutorials.

- When using a direct quote from a book, page numbers are put in at the end of the in-text reference and the bibliography. E.g. Successful coaches “undertake numerous roles within the umbrella of sports coaching” (Martens, 2004, p. 5).
- Martens, R. (2004) Successful Coaching. 3rd edn. Windsor: Human Kinetics. Pp 5.
- Arrange references alphabetically in your bibliography
- Split your reference list at back of assignment
- References – direct quotes
- Bibliography – information you have used to supplement your knowledge on the topic area but not quoted directly.
- No date – the abbreviation ‘n.d.’ is used
- Example: Smith (n.d.) has written...
- No author – use ‘Anon’
- Example: Marketing strategy (Anon., 1999) ...
- OR When the name of the author cannot be identified then quote the title of the article were you found the information: e.g. In a recent report (Living condition in Britain, 2005 p.78) it was stated that.....
- Edited books – put ‘ed.’ after Editor’s name • Example: Robins, K. ed. (2007)...

Acknowledging the use of Artificial Intelligence Generative Tools

Where generative artificial intelligence (AI) tools have been used for an assessment, they must be acknowledged appropriately to ensure that any output is not misconstrued as the student’s own work. Where AI is used students must acknowledge its use and show clearly how they have used it. This is particularly important given that AI-generated content is not subject to the same academic scrutiny as other published sources. Before beginning any piece of assessed work, students should check that the use of AI tools is authorised, as this practice may differ across modules and courses of study.

The following should be included to acknowledge the authorised use of AI:

- Cite in the text. Use the company as the author, not the tool's name e.g., OpenAI rather than ChatGPT and refer to appendix of exports (OpenAI, 2023, see Appendix 1)
- Include reference in bibliography Title. Year. Place of publication: Publisher. Software: Platform. (List relevant Appendix)
- Where AI tools have been used as a source of information, the student must submit the following in an Appendix with their assignment including the following:
 - the name of the AI source used and the date the content was generated e.g. ChatGPT 3.5 (<https://openai.com/blog/chatgpt/>), 25/01/2023
 - provide a copy of the question(s)/ prompts and computer-generated content for reference and authentication purposes, in a noneditable format (such as a screenshot) and provide a brief explanation of how it has been used
 - Each new prompt/question and response will need a separate appendix.

The Harvard Referencing rules and examples are summarised in the following tables:

| What you are referencing | What appears in the text | What appears in the bibliography | Example bibliography |

Appendix 3- Extenuating Circumstances Form

Presentation of extenuating circumstances

What are extenuating circumstances?

Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which either prevented you from attending an examination or submitting part or all of your coursework by the due deadline. It could also be the case that you attended an examination, or submitted coursework, but your performance was adversely affected by extenuating circumstances. Although often medical in nature, anything which is unforeseeable or unpreventable may be considered an extenuating circumstance (for example, a family bereavement).

How do I present details of my extenuating circumstances?

This form has been designed to give you the opportunity to set out the details of your extenuating circumstances. You should complete Section A in full. Any evidence in support of your claim should be submitted with the form. Where appropriate, the College's counselling service will provide reports in support of claims of extenuating circumstances.

- When do I present details of extenuating circumstances? - Claims for extenuating circumstances should be made at the time the circumstances occurred and must be submitted as soon as is practicable.
- To whom do I present details of extenuating circumstances? - The completed form, together with any supporting documentation, must be presented to your Course Tutor.

What will happen to my completed form?

Your submission will be considered through the appropriate channels and the outcome communicated to you. If the evidence is accepted you will be given the opportunity to be assessed on a further occasion in the appropriate examination(s) or coursework. Please note that a successful outcome will always involve further assessment in the module(s) concerned; the examiners will not give you additional marks to compensate for your extenuating circumstances.

Prior to completing this form, you are strongly advised to read the submission and grading procedures for assignments for the relevant Awarding Organisation for further details on Extenuating Circumstances.

PRIVACY NOTICE: Information gathered on this form will be processed within the provisions of the Data Protection Act (2018) and the UK GDPR and used for the purpose of recording and managing extenuating circumstances. The College is permitted to process personal data where there is a 'lawful basis' to do so. This processing is necessary for the performance of your contract. Your information may be shared with relevant college staff for the purpose of recording and managing extenuating circumstances.

Appendix 4 Examination Regulations

- All candidates must be able to produce photographic ID.
- Candidates must observe all instructions given by an invigilator.
- Candidates may be admitted to the examination room not more than 10 minutes before the start of the examination.
- No candidate may enter the examination room later than 30 minutes after the start of the examination except under exceptional circumstances.
- No candidate may leave the examination room until one hour after the examination has commenced, or within the last 15 minutes, except with the permission of an invigilator.
- Candidates who wish to leave before the end of an examination must attract the attention of an invigilator and, when given permission to do so, should leave in such a way as to cause the minimum of disturbance to other candidates.
- Candidates may leave an examination temporarily only with the permission of an invigilator, and when accompanied by an invigilator or other authorised person.
- A candidate who leaves the examination room without the permission of an invigilator will be deemed to have withdrawn from the examination and will not be permitted to re-enter the examination room.
- Except for medical reasons or other sufficient cause, candidates who fail to present themselves for an examination shall be deemed to have failed that examination.
- Candidates shall not take into the examination room any books, papers or other information relevant to the examination except where the instructions of the module tutor are otherwise. Such instructions will be shown on the examination cover sheet and will clearly specify the nature of the material which can be used.
- Candidates shall not bring food or drink into the examination room without prior permission from an invigilator.
- During an examination candidates should not communicate with one another or leave their places.
- All work, including rough work, must be done in the answer books provided.
- Candidates should ensure that all their examination scripts are legible. A module tutor may decide not to mark an examination script judged by them to be illegible.

- A candidate who is considered by an invigilator to be disruptive during an examination may be required to withdraw from that examination.
- If an invigilator considers that annotation of prescribed texts used in an examination could give a candidate an unfair advantage, the texts may be retained at the end of the examination.
- It is the responsibility of each candidate to ensure that his or her script is received by an invigilator.
- Any student who has exceptional examination requirements must have made these known and produce the required evidence at least 8 weeks prior to the examination.
- Mobile phones and smart watches must not be brought into the examination room.

Offences in Connection with Examinations

It is an offence for a candidate wilfully to infringe, or attempt to infringe, the above regulations. In cases where malpractice is considered to have been committed by a candidate during an examination the procedure below will be followed.

An invigilator shall draw a line across the cover of the answer book, and on this line state the time at which the suspected malpractice was discovered and the nature of the suspected malpractice. The candidate will be issued with a fresh answer book and permitted to continue the examination, concluding at the normal time.

Immediately after the examination an invigilator will report the suspected malpractice to the Programme Coordinator who will decide on further action to be taken. Normally, when a student has been found guilty of malpractice he or she will be deemed to have failed that examination.

It is an offence in an examination (or any other assessment procedures) for a student to engage in any conduct for the purpose of gaining for himself or herself, or any other candidate, an unfair advantage with a view to obtaining a better result than he or she would otherwise achieve.

Examples of such conduct are:

- copying from the examination script (or any other assessment work) of another candidate;
- personating others;
- fabrication of results;
- plagiarism.

Reports of any such conduct will be made to the Programme Coordinator, who will decide on the nature of disciplinary action to be taken.

Regulations Governing Practical Examinations in Art & Design

All examination work, with the exception of research activities, must be carried out in the College and must be shown to be the original work of the student.

- All work must be carried out solely by the student, except for certain technical help approved by an invigilator.
- Examination work must be kept in the studios/workshops for the duration of the examination.
- Final evaluations and written critiques must be word processed.
- Examination work must be submitted by the set deadline.

Appendix 5 HE Academic Appeals Process

Introduction

This procedure has been informed by the advice and guidance within Concerns, Complaints and Appeals in the UK Quality Code, awarding organisation regulations and the office of the NI Public Services Ombudsman (NIPSO). It aims to improve the student experience by making appropriate and consistent judgements. The student will be guaranteed confidentiality and will not be disadvantaged for using the process. The College acknowledges that the process aids in developing the student experience.

What this procedure covers

This Appeals Procedure does not cover Liverpool John Moores University (LJMU) programmes as this is not delegated to the College. Students working towards an award made by LJMU should use the University's own appeal process which is available at: Student Appeals | Liverpool John Moores University \(ljmu.ac.uk\).

All other awarding organisations fall under these regulations which cover all Higher Education students or those on a leave of absence.

An Academic Appeal is a request within the grounds itemised below to review decisions made by the Higher Education Assessment and Examination Board on progression, assessment and awards. An Academic Appeal can only be made after an Examination Board has sat and you have been advised of your marks/grades.

An Academic Appeal differs from a complaint and therefore appeals and complaints are considered under different processes. A complaint is defined as a formal expression of dissatisfaction made by either a student or group of students about the provision of their programme of study, related academic service or facility, or any other service provision provided by the College. Details of the Complaints and Compliments Policy can be found at the link Complaints and Compliments Policy at www.serc.ac.uk. Should an issue fall under more than one process the College will work flexibly to maintain the rights of the student.

The Academic Appeals Procedure embodies the principles of natural justice, fairness, equity, confidentiality, objectivity and equality of opportunity. Students will be informed about the process in the student handbook, on the Higher Education SOP and policy page on the intranet and as part of induction and tutorial processes.

Grounds for Appeal

The purpose of this procedure is to establish the facts and come to a reasonable and just resolution, which is timely, relevant, and proportionate.

The grounds on which an appeal will be considered are:

1. That the Higher Education Examination and Progress Board was unaware of new information about an extenuating circumstance which might have affected their decision concerning an individual student.

Evidence: Written medical evidence or evidence of compassionate circumstances, which were relevant to your performance, must be provided as part of the appeal.

Note: Evidence of ill health must be authenticated by a medical certificate from a doctor or appropriate documentation from a registered counsellor - self-certification is not acceptable.

2. That there was a procedural or other irregularity. That the procedures were not used properly and fairly in arriving at judgements.

Evidence: An example of a procedural irregularity could be a change to submission dates not notified to students in advance or the internal verification processes were not implemented. A full explanation and documentation to support the appeal must be included.

An Academic Appeal will only be considered where there is deemed to be evidence to support one of the above grounds for appeal.

Disagreement with the academic judgement of assessors or a Board of Examiners cannot constitute grounds for an appeal.

The Appeals Panel will not consider an appeal if it is deemed to be vexatious or frivolous, if the forms have not been completed, or if supporting evidence has not been supplied.

Procedure for Academic Appeals

Stage 1 – Informal

Academic Appeals should be addressed to the Senior Customer Services Officer (SCSO) of the College using the Academic Appeals Forms 1 or 2 below within 10 working days* (or 7 working days for Ulster University Programmes) of the student being notified in writing of the decision they wish to appeal. Appeals received outside of this timeframe cannot be considered. Submissions can be emailed to academicappeals@serc.ac.uk or handed in to any main campus reception area.

* Working days are those days on which the College is open. Weekends, statutory days, Bank Holidays and other college closures are classed as 'non-working' days.

It is the responsibility of the appellant to state clearly the grounds for their appeal and to produce evidence in support of either extenuating circumstances or procedural irregularities.

The appeal will be rejected if:

1. There are no grounds for an appeal
2. The student has failed to substantially complete the form
3. The appeal is received outside the submission timeframe

The SCSO will forward the appeal to the Head of School who will determine if the appeal is valid i.e. meets one of the conditions of Grounds for Appeal.

The Head of School, Principal Lecturer, or nominated Deputy Head of School will meet (in person, by phone or email) with the student to try to resolve or provide support. This meeting should occur within five working days following receipt of the appeal. A student can bring someone to support them but there is no right to have legal representation.

As a consequence of this meeting one of the following outcomes should be agreed;

1. The student is content not to continue with their appeal
2. The student should proceed to the formal appeal stage

Students will in all cases be informed of the outcome of the informal stage in writing by the Head of School, Principal Lecturer, or nominated Deputy Head of School. Any student wishing to proceed to Stage 2 should inform the Senior Customer Services Officer in writing or by email to academicappeals@serc.ac.uk within 5 days of receiving the outcome letter of Stage 1.

Stage 2 – Formal

Where a student wishes to continue with their appeal the SCSO will notify the Head of Higher Education (QED) who will convene an Appeal Panel to hear the formal stage of the appeal. The Panel will be convened within 10 working days of receipt of a request by the student to continue the process. The College will try to convene a panel as swiftly as possible to expedite necessary actions, to ensure that the student is not disadvantaged.

To ensure independence and fairness, the Chair of the Appeals Panel and members must not have been party to any preceding decision that may have initiated the appeal. The Panel should be made up of at least two members of staff who have not been involved previously, one of whom must be a Deputy Principal, Head of the Quality Excellence and Development Unit, Head of Higher Education, or Head of School. (see Terms of Reference below).

Students have a right to be accompanied. Any person accompanying a student is present to support a student and as such should not contribute to the meeting unless at the behest of the student and only when invited to do so by the Chair.

There is no right for a student to have legal representation at an Academic Appeals Panel. Each party will be given an equal opportunity to present their case.

If the student does not attend the Academic Appeals Panel, the Panel may continue to consider the appeal in the student's absence. The Panel may, if it wishes, adjourn the meeting if reasonable grounds for non-attendance have been provided (e.g. sickness absence).

The outcome of the appeal may be:

1. To uphold the appeal based on the evidence presented
2. To partially uphold the appeal based on the evidence presented
3. To dismiss the appeal

The Chair of the Appeals Panel will notify the student of the outcome in writing within 5 days of hearing the appeal. Copies of the outcome will be returned to the Senior Customer Services Officer via email to academicappeals@serc.ac.uk

If the appeal is upheld or partially upheld the issue is referred back to the Board of Examinations to amend the record of the student accordingly in line with Awarding Organisation regulations.

Appeals to Awarding Organisation or the Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman

If all internal procedures have been exhausted and the student remains dissatisfied they have the right to refer the appeal to the Awarding Organisation and then to NIPSO. Further information about these processes can be found at www.nipso.org.uk
